

Form for information about Statutory Cancellation Right

With a correctly filled in form deemed the information in the Consumer Purchases Cancellation Act §8 subsection one letter h, i, and j, see subsection two, given,

Statutory Cancellation Right

You have the right to leave this agreement within 14 days without giving any reason as to why. The statutory cancellation right expires 14 days after the tenancy agreement has been signed.

To use the statutory cancellation right you have to notify us:

Studentsamskipnaden i Molde (org.nr. 950 751517)

in an unequivocal matter about your decision to leave the agreement (e.g. in a letter sent by mail, telefax, or email).

You can use the attached Statutory Cancellation Right form, but it is not mandatory.

You can also fill in and send the form, or another unequivocal statement, electronically on our website <https://simolde.unialltid.no/>. If you choose this option we will immediately send you a confirmation of reception on a lasting medium (e.g. by email).

To abide the cancellation period it is enough to send the notification that you would like to use the Statutory Cancellation Right before the cancellation period expires.

The effect of using the Statutory Cancellation Right

Should you leave this agreement, we will repay all payments we have received from you, without unnecessary delay, and in all cases within 14 days after the day we receive a notification about your decision to leave this agreement.

We carry out the repayment with the same means of payment that you used at the original transaction, unless you specifically has agreed on something else with us.

In all cases you will not be imposed any fees because of the repayment.

If you request that the tenancy start before the Statutory Cancellation Right expires, you have to pay us an amount that matches what has been done or delivered up until you have notified us about wishing to leave the tenancy agreement, compared to full completion of the agreement.
